The EMS invites applications for a Young Scientist Travel Award (YSTA) to support the participation of young scientists at the 5th European Conference on Severe Storms, 12 - 16 October 2009, in Landshut, Germany. This award includes financial support for travel expenditures of 500€.

Eligibility

Young scientists under 35 years of age on the first of January 2009 working and/or studying in a European country are eligible for an award. All countries with an EMS Member Society or included in the WMO RA VI region are considered as European. For an overview of EMS Member Societies please consult the EMS Web Site at: www.emetsoc.org/about_ems/member_societies.php.

Application procedure:

The candidates may apply directly.
Alternatively the following bodies may recommend candidates: the Programme Committee of the Conference, EMS Member Societies, and EMS Associate Members.

The following documents are required:

- (i) a short curriculum vitae,
- (ii) the abstract submitted to the ECSS 2009,
- (iii) a breakdown of contributions from other sources to the expenses,
- (iv) a document to determine the age of the candidate, and
- (v) a supporting statement (e.g. by an EMS Member Society or an EMS Associate Member).

Please submit any proposal to the EMS Executive Secretary at ems-sec@met.fu-berlin.de. The deadline for the receipt of proposals is 30 April 2009.

The Awardee will receive a certificate that will be presented during the ECSS conference in Landshut.
